Leaf Executive Chair

Designed for the ultimate in movement comfort and flexibility, The Leaf Performance office chair, gives exceptional back support that moves with you. Combining ergonomics with movement, the Leaf allows you to stretch relieving pressure on the lumbar, lower back and spine and allowing for lateral based motion.

The leaf chair is new to the market and revolutionary in design, mimicking the design and movement of the spine.

The comfortable padded back and curve of the moulded seat foam helps blood circulation to your lower legs providing full body ergonomic solution.
